

October 2011

Hi __FIRST__

Our big centenary celebrations continue this month with a special gala at the London Palladium on Monday 28 November. There will be performances from Sophie Ellis-Bextor, Miranda Hart, the cast of The Lion King and lots more. The money raised from the celebrations will go towards helping Macmillan continue to support people affected by cancer. It's going to be a great evening. If you fancy joining us there are still some tickets available. Tickets start from £35, call 020 7840 4747 to book.

Of course, Christmas isn't too far away now either. You're probably thinking about sorting out your Christmas cards. If so, you should visit the Macmillan online shop. There you'll find cards and a selection of lovely gifts that all help towards supporting people affected by cancer.

Latest news

Events

From the website

Latest news

Enjoy some carols by candlelight

Come and get your festive fix at this year's Carols by Candlelight concert on Thursday 15 of December.

Sponsored by Robert Walters, the concert features carols, celebrity readers, mince pies, King's Ginger Liqueur and many more festivities all in aid of Macmillan.

Get your tickets now by calling 0207 840 4800, or emailing

Take steps to change lives

How about organising a winter ramble through the fallen leaves and crisp air?

We can support you by providing tips to organise your walk, as well as materials to promote your event.

Decide when and where, register your event, invite family and friends to join you, and get sponsored to raise money for people affected by

Keeping Snug fuels Macmillan funds

This winter the Snug Network, the UK's leading network of specialist insulation and renewable energy installers, aim to raise £100,000 for Macmillan.

They will be donating 50p for every home they insulate.

As Macmillan is their official charity partner, they will also be organising a variety of fundraising events. They have cancer.

Macmillan.

Find out more >>

Find out more >>

already raised over £14,000 for us through events including the Great North Run.

Find out more >>

Events

Conquer the highest mountain

Push yourself to the limit and conquer the highest free-standing mountain in the world, Mount Kilimanjaro.

Our trek takes us through lush rainforests, alpine meadows, and above the clouds across a barren lunar landscape to the spectacular snow-capped summit.

Join us for this amazing challenge and with every step we'll change the lives of people affected by cancer.

For more information email the hiking team, or call 020 7840 7887 quoting enews.

Find out more >>

Running all over the world

Why not look for a running event in a place that you've always wanted to go – it is a great way to see the sights.

Whether you want to sprint down a strasse, speed over sidewalks, or bound across boulevards, there is something for you.

You can take on a new challenge in a new country to help people affected by cancer.

For more information email the running team

Find out more >>

Edinburgh has a race for everyone

Get your family, friends or colleagues together for a weekend of running festivities.

There's a race for everyone whether it be the Junior, 5K, 10K, half marathon, marathon or team relay.

Join Team Macmillan and know that you're helping change the lives of people affected by cancer.

For more information email the Edinburgh Marathon team or call 020 7840 7878 quoting enews,

Find out more >>

From our website

Would you like to honour an extra special volunteer?

You've got until Tuesday 1 December to nominate them for a Macmillan Volunteer Award.

Macmillan is very lucky to have thousands of volunteers who raise millions of pounds, champion Macmillan's work and make an outstanding contribution to cancer support and care. Our Volunteer Awards give us the chance to recognise star volunteers, who make an exceptional contribution to Macmillan and people affected by cancer.

Lung Cancer Awareness Month

Actress Lynda Bellingham shares her story of losing a sister to lung cancer.

If you would like to know more about lung cancer including its causes, symptoms and what is likely to happen if you are diagnosed, Macmillan provides expert information on our website.

We believe that good quality information can help people affected by cancer understand their situation better and make better decisions about their treatment and day-to-day lives.

Fundraise for us »

Get involved »

Donate now »

You are currently subscribed as \_\_EMAIL\_\_

Please add us to your safe senders or contacts list to ensure you continue to receive emails from us.

If you would like to leave feedback about this newsletter or the work Macmillan do, please do so.

If you wish to stop receiving emails, please \_\_UNSUB\_\_

Macmillan Cancer Support, registered charity in England and Wales (261017), Scotland (SC039907) and the Isle of Man (604).

A company limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales company number 2400969.

Isle of Man company number 4694F. Registered office: 89 Albert Embankment, London SE1 7UQ.

\_\_SMS\_\_